

Customer Privacy Notice

Personal information

Flagship Housing Group Limited is committed to the responsible handling and protection of personal information.

The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) defines personal data as any information related to a person that can be used to directly or indirectly identify them. This includes physical attributes, location data, online identifiers (including IP addresses), identification numbers, health information and economic, cultural or social identify of a person.

We process (collect, use, store, share) personal information where necessary to provide our services and for our operational and business purposes as described in this Privacy Notice.

We want to be clear about our privacy practices so that you can make informed choices about the use of your information, and we encourage you to contact us at any time with questions or concerns.

How we use your information

This privacy notice tells you how we, Flagship Housing Group Limited, will collect and use your personal information to enable us to provide affordable housing, shared ownership, private lettings, student and direct sale accommodation and associated services.

Why does Flagship Group need to collect and store personal information?

Flagship processes personal information for the following purposes:

- Management and support of Tenancies, Shared Ownership and Direct Sales
- For the welfare of our customers

The Platform gives you the chance to get involved and help us improve the service we provide. The Platform is a WordPress blogging service hosted by Microsoft. The Microsoft privacy notice is viewable on sign up.

Vital Interest – We process personal information where it is in the vital interest of Flagship Group customers.

- In an emergency where the individual is incapable of giving consent, we will share medical or next of kin details with paramedics or other medical providers.

Public Interest – We process personal information as part of the National Fraud Initiative (NFI). This is a national exercise run by the Cabinet Office every two years. Data is matched to enable potentially fraudulent claims and payments to be identified. If a fraudulent match is discovered an investigation will take place which may result in the prosecution of the individual. For more information please refer to Gov.UK privacy notice on Flagship Group website or visit <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/code-of-data-matching-practice-for-national-fraud-initiative>

Will Flagship Group share my personal information with anyone else?

We may pass your personal information on to third-party service providers contracted to Flagship Group during dealing with you. Any third parties that we may share your information with are obliged to keep your details securely, and to use them only to fulfil the services they provide on our behalf. When they no longer need your information to fulfil this service, they will dispose of the details in line with Flagship Group procedures. If we wish to pass your sensitive personal information onto a third party we will only do so once we have obtained your consent, unless we are legally required to do otherwise.

Special circumstances

To provide a duty of care to employees, customers, contractors and sub-contractors we will process and share relevant personal information for their protection. This will be an alert on our management system to visit in pairs (DNVA).

How will Flagship Group use the personal information it collects about me?

Flagship Group will process the information you provide in a manner compatible with the EU's General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). We will endeavour to keep your information accurate and up to date, and not keep it for longer than is necessary. Flagship Group is required to retain information in accordance with the law, such as information needed for financial, legal and audit purposes. How long certain kinds of personal information should be kept may also be governed by specific business-sector requirements and agreed practices. Personal information may be held in addition to these periods depending on individual business needs.

Under what circumstances will Flagship Group contact me?

Our aim is not to be intrusive, and we undertake not to ask irrelevant or unnecessary questions. We may sometimes contact you for feedback by doing research or asking you to take part in a survey, this enables us to make changes and improvements to our services. We may also communicate with you when we have updates or changes to our business. If you have provided us your email and or mobile number, we will contact you in this way to communicate.

We consider this communication to be within our legitimate interest of lawful processing.

How do we secure personal information?

Flagship Group takes data security seriously, and we use appropriate technologies and procedures to protect personal information. Our information security policies and procedures are closely aligned with widely accepted standards and are reviewed regularly and updated as necessary to meet our business needs, changes in technology, and regulatory requirements.

For example:

Policies and procedures

We have measures in place to protect against accidental loss and unauthorized access, use, destruction, or disclosure of data including the following:

- We have a Business Continuity and Disaster Recovery strategy that is designed to safeguard the continuity of our service to our customers and to protect our people and assets
- We place appropriate restrictions on access to personal information
- We implement appropriate measures and controls, including monitoring and physical measures, to store and transfer data securely
- We conduct Privacy Impact Assessments in accordance with legal requirements and our business policies
- We conduct Data Protection training for all employees who have access to personal information and other sensitive data

- We take steps to ensure that our employees and contractors operate in accordance with our information security policies and procedures and any applicable contractual conditions

Your rights as a data subject (Customers of Flagship Group)

At any point while we are in possession of or processing your personal data, you, the data subject, have the following rights:

- Right of Access – at your request we will provide you with a copy of the personal data we hold about you. This is referred to as your right of access (subject access request). You are entitled to receive any information that identifies you as an individual.
- Right of rectification – you have a right to ask us to update personal information if you have a reason to believe that it is inaccurate or incomplete.
- Right to be forgotten – you have the right in certain circumstances to ask for the data we hold about you to be erased from our records. Especially if you think we are processing your personal information where it is no longer necessary or where you believe it is unlawful.
- Right to restriction of processing – You have the right to ask us to temporarily stop processing your personal information if you have concerns over the accuracy of the information in some way.
- Right of portability – you have the right to have the data we hold about you transferred to another organisation.
- Right to object – you have the right to object to the way we process your personal information if you consider Flagship are being unlawful.
- Right to object to automated processing – you have the right to object to decisions made about you from automated processing, such as the affordability checker. Flagship Group use the affordability checker for customers applying for Shared Ownership properties. The result of the calculation made will determine whether Flagship will be able to offer you a Shared Ownership property. Automated processing is also used as part of the National Fraud Initiative (NFI) of which Flagship Group takes part every two years. The data matching allows potentially fraudulent claims and payments to be identified.

Continuous Recording of Social Housing Lettings and Sales (CORE)

Information gathered by the Ministry of Housing, Communities & Local Government

If your household has entered a new social housing tenancy after 1989, social housing providers such as Flagship will have shared data for research and statistical purposes. The Ministry of Housing has asked social landlords to make their privacy notice available to our customers. This will be enclosed with your Tenancy Agreement.
